

A SOLO SHOW WRITTEN & PERFORMED BY KATE MURA

THE PLAY ABOUT MY FATHER

Singing, mime, dance, and a dozen voices. Ten years in the making. One performer's love letter to the family, friends, and community who showed up when it mattered most.

A preternaturally gifted performer telling an achingly human, uplifting story.

WILLAMETTE WEEK

A warm and compassionate show about the power of kindness to lift people up in their moments of greatest need.

BROADWAYWORLD

PHOTO: GARY NORMAN

THE SHOW

When Kate Mura was young, her father was badly hurt in a freak accident. The Play About My Father is her love letter to everyone (family, friends, chosen family, and a whole New Jersey community) who showed up for her family through it. Mura narrates as Stella, her jovial, babushka-wearing great-aunt, then shape-shifts through a full community of characters: aunts, neighbors, a priest, a family friend named Tony with a famous lasagna, her injured father, and, briefly, herself.

SHOW FACTS

RUNNING TIME

~60 minutes

DEVELOPED OVER

10 years

COSTUME DESIGN

Jessica Kroeze

FORMAT

Solo show: singing, mime, dance, improv, multi-character work

DIRECTED BY

Rusty Tennant

MOST RECENTLY STAGED

Fuse Theatre Ensemble, Back Door Theatre (Apr to May 2024); Artists Repertory Theatre (2025)

THE ARTIST

Transformation is my passion...

Kate Mura is an actor, a union stagehand, designer, and coach. She chooses theatre as her life's work because it constantly proves that creating other worlds is possible, and it's her quest, in life and art, to help build the world she wants to live in: one that's beautiful, supportive, and sustainable through tragedy and pain.

SELECTED CREDITS

- Backup dancer for Salt-N-Pepa, CityKids Foundation Tenth Anniversary Gala
- Danced with President Bill Clinton, Presidential Summit for America's Future
- Coached William Hurt in neutral mask for No Man's Land, Artists Repertory Theatre
- Played The Library Lady in Tomás and the Library Lady, Oregon Children's Theatre
- Toured ten states with Tears of Joy Theatre
- Recipient of the Leslie O. Fulton Fellowship

PRODUCTION CREDITS

PERFORMER / CREATOR

Kate Mura

DIRECTOR

Rusty Tennant

COSTUME DESIGN

Jessica Kroeze

PRODUCER

Fuse Theatre Ensemble

PRESS

Full reviews: Willamette Week & BroadwayWorld, linked in the digital EPK.

BOOKING

Bring The Play About My Father to your stage.

bookingfaery@katemura.com

503-298-6972 · katemura.com

CONTACT DETAILS CARRIED OVER FROM AN EARLIER PRESS KIT. PLEASE CONFIRM BEFORE USE.